

Reflection Questions for Congregations in Transition

1. Why is attending church important to you?
2. What do you feel is the biggest challenge facing a new pastor of your congregation?
3. What can you do to help a new pastor face and overcome this challenge?
4. To grow is to change. What positive changes are you willing to support to live out God's mission in this place?
5. What is your congregation doing to bring God's work to your changing community?
