Facts about the Fourth of July Which Emphasizes Spiritual Freedom

Although it is not a religious holiday like Christmas or Easter, for many Americans July 4th is a time to reflect on God's goodness to us as a nation. Molded into the Liberty Bell in Philadelphia (which proclaimed our independence) are these words from the Bible: "Proclaim liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof" (Leviticus 25:10, KJV).

For anyone wondering what religion had to do with Independence Day, President Kennedy made the connection explicit. "Our government was founded on the essential religious idea of integrity of the individual. It was this religious sense which inspired the authors of the Declaration of Independence: 'We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men are created equal; that they are endowed by their Creator with certain inalienable rights.'"

The Church

Much Gratitude

Many thanks to all for their prayers, cares and concerns during my health travels on the roller coaster ride of numerous procedures, etc. Special thanks to those who provided transportation, visits, yummy foods and many other kindnesses.

The love and care of my Heavenly Father has given me the strength and endurance to continue my journey. Again, I am very grateful for my “earth angels” and their generosity.

With loving thanks and blessings, Kathryn
